

Invite a President Into Your Classroom With National Park Service Education Programs

Andrew Johnson Memorial Building Greeneville, Tennessee

These opportunities for kindergarten through eighth grades excite students about the history of Greeneville, Tennessee and a local tailor of the 19th century who earned his place as 17th president of the United States. Lessons taught by National Park Rangers describe the life and times of Andrew Johnson, the Constitution of the United States, and qualities of leadership. All lessons are prepared within the framework of Tennessee State curriculum standards.

Program Description

Tennessee State Standards

First Grade

Your Vote Counts!

Students are given the opportunity to vote in a mock election to better understand the process of the American political system and identify their rights as a citizen. The park ranger will introduce the class to the contributions of past American presidents, while highlighting Greeneville's own, Andrew Johnson.

Economics

Learning Expectations 2.02

Geography

Learning Expectations 3.01

Governance and Civics

Learning Expectations 4.01, 4.02, 4.03, 4.04

History

Learning Expectations 5.01, 5.02, 5.03

Second Grade

Culture of Tennessee

This lesson offers students the chance to investigate Tennessee's cultural influences. From musical heritage to American Presidents, Tennessee is a unique state with an illustrious history. Guided inquiry is incorporated into this lesson.

Culture

Learning Expectations 1.01

Economics

Learning Expectations 2.01

Geography

Learning Expectations 2.3.02, 2.3.03

Governance and Civics

Learning Expectations 2.4.04

History

Learning Expectations 2.5.01, 2.5.02, 2.5.03

Third Grade

Our Neighbor the President

Students use primary sources to piece together a timeline of history using newspaper headlines. The park ranger will show a presentation of President's homes to allow students to compare and contrast life-styles of different periods.

Governance and Civics

3.4 spi.1

History

3.5.spi.1, 3.5.spi.2, 3.5.spi.3,

President Andrew Johnson

Program Description	Tennessee SPI's
Fourth Grade Barter and Trade Andrew Johnson's early career as Greenville's tailor makes an excellent platform to investigate the role of money and bartering in society. Students participate in a class game to barter for goods.	Economics 4.2.spi.1, 4.2.spi.4 Culture 4.1.spi.3
Fifth Grade Classroom Activity Trunk Students examine the history and relevance of American government through songs, games, puzzles and other interactive challenges in this educational trunk available for free loan.	Governance and Civics Learning Expectations: 4.01, 4.02, 4.03, 4.04, 4.05  5.4.spi.5
Sixth Grade Mapping Culture Map reading skills are used in this lesson to explore exciting cultural heritage sites protected by the National Park Service. Students travel to a variety of destinations as they read their way through clues written on postcards and discover on their own why these places are preserved for future generations.	Culture 6.1.spi.1, 6.1.spi.2, 6.1.spi.6 Geography 6.3.spi.2
Seventh Grade Treasured Land: Our National Parks Students will examine the cultural value that Americans place on National Park sites and will develop their own site while using a variety of maps while protecting renewable and non renewable resources.	Economics 7.2.spi.2 Geography 7.3.spi.1, 7.3.spi.10, 7.3.spi.14, 7.3.spi.18
Eighth Grade Foundation and Function of Our American Government Students participate in a re-telling of early American history. A contest to demonstrate knowledge and understanding of our U.S. Constitution in the past, present and future will bring history to life in the classroom.	Governance and Civics 8.4.spi.1, 8.4.spi.2, 8.4.spi.3, 8.4.spi.4, 8.4.spi.5, 8.4.spi.9

All Programs Are Free

*For additional information or to sign your class up, call Ranger Jennifer today!
 423-639-3711 ext 109*

Jennifer_Pierce@nps.gov

Don't Forget!

An on-site visit to Andrew Johnson's homes and Tailor Shop in Downtown Greenville, Tennessee also serve as an outstanding opportunity for students to see history come alive.

These grade- appropriate programs are presented by Park Rangers and are free of charge. Call to arrange a visit to Andrew Johnson National Historic Site 423-639-3711.